One Week More of Morris Park's Great

GOOD STAKES TO BE RUN.

Race Meeting.

Report That the Morrises Have the Washington Track.

One week from to-day and the Spring meeting of the New York Jockey Club will close, and on Tuesday following the great Suburban will be decided. Should the weather this week be as fine shit was last week, Morris Park will close the most successful fortnight's racing ever held in this country. In fact, it has been of such high class that the coming Suburban has almost been lost sight of for the time being.

The racing this week will be highly interest ing for there are some good stake events to be livided. Among them are the Ladies' Stakes tomorrow, the historic Belmont Stakes, with a ong list of entries, on Wednesday, and the All Breeze Stakes for the same day,

It is reported that J. A. & A. H. Morris, the popular owners of Morris Park, have secured control of the Washington race track. If this be true, the old-time racing at the National Capital will be restored under the Morrison broad and liberal policy.

It is also rumored that the Morrises are nego tlating for Bennings track, and it is said that if they are successful they will remode the whole thing and make it one of the finest tracks in the country.

There was quite a burn of discontant on saturday when the judges decided a dead best between Hellgate, Dagonet and Osric. The newspapermen carled Heligate second short head to a man, and they are not gen crally very far off on a finish.

It was said that Mayor Grant could not see Tammany despised or go to the post without even a bet on him for encouragement. So His Henor placed a bet and sent word to Tam-His price was 40 to 1, and he remuner ated the Mayor quite handsomely. Mr. Swigert captured the St. Louis Fair

Derby in a handy manner with his coll Michael, who is entered for the Chicago Derby and whom Flispatrick is engaged to ride.

Firenze has not broken down as was reported but she is very lame, and as for her starting in the Suburban it is out of the ques Thomas Herity was held for trial at the Tombs for reating Patrick McGrath, who also lives at 55 Rose atrect, on the head with a hammer. He was paroled for trial at the Special Sessions. His case is on for to-morrow and Justice Hogan to-day put him under $300 bonds on that charge also.

It was fully demonstrated on Saturday how uncertain racing really it. Leganto beat for not long since quite easily. Then Tristan beat fency of fast time. Then on Saturday for, who had been beaten by the selling plater, jumps out and easily downs Tristan.

It is about time for Fred Genhard's 500.000 beauty, Canvass, to win a race. She ran a moverately fair race Saturday, second to His Highness. . . .

It is not probable that Tenny will be seen spain before the Suburtan. He is detaglouis slow work and is in very fine consistion. The rest of Mr. Pulsifer's atring will not be ready to face the starter for sems time yet.

Tournament ran a fine race Saturday until the last furious, when he quit and looked as if he lacked condition. He is entered for the Suburban, and may, whit a few more races, we gotten into long-distance form.

With Strathmenth, Polomae and probably Ringston to represent the East in the Calcare Deroy, to be run on June 30, and Ringman, Balgewan, High Tariff, Palestine, Sai Josquila and other good ones in the West, the Windy City people are promised a rare treat in horse racing.
